

VERSION OF CLAIM WITH MARKINGS TO SHOW CHANGES BEING MADE

5. (Amended) A method of treating a mammal prophylactically to prevent neoplastic development, comprising administering to said mammal a therapeutic vaccine containing venom and/or mammalian, plant or insect [PLA<sub>2</sub>] phospholipase A2 enzymes or part thereof as the principal antigen component.